

www.usarmyallamericanbowl.com
www.footballuniversity.org

All American Games (AAG), the owner and producer of the U.S. Army All-American Bowl, Football University (FBU), and FBU National Championship is seeking a Regional Player Development Representative.

Position Reports to: Vice President of Player Development

Role Purpose: Represent AAG in its in-market outreach efforts to recruit athletes, coaches, and parents to participate in AAG football activities: FBU camps, FBU National Championship, U.S. Army All-American Bowl, and U.S. Army National Combine.

- Key Accountabilities: The Regional Player Development Representative is responsible for cultivating and sustaining relationships within market territories with HS coaches (Varsity, JV, and Freshman Head Coaches and Position Coaches), Youth League Presidents, Board Members, Coaches, Team Moms, Training/Development Facility owners and staff, and other persons and entities involved with HS or Youth football (e.g., regional or local combine companies). Market territories are West Coast, SW Region, Midwest Region, and Florida.

Recruit and inspire a team of Team Directors, scouts, and regional representatives to support outreach efforts in each market.

Ability to relate to and inspire kids.

Requirements:

- Passion for helping kids succeed and enhance the unique ability of AAG to deliver on that commitment
- Drive/discipline and organizational ability to research, initiate, and cultivate relationships on a constant sustained basis
- Ability to relate to and communicate with adults (coaches/presidents/parents) and athletes (USAAB and HS to youth)
- Credibility on football activity, understanding of structure of HS and youth football in US
- Willingness to be held accountable for activities on a daily basis and discipline and professionalism to execute
- Willingness to travel into territories on a regular basis—up to three weeks/month

Skills & Abilities:

- Excellent interpersonal skills in person and on the phone
- Strong presentation/performance skills to make formal presentations of AAG activities
- Computer skills, Microsoft Word and Excel; ability to utilize and master CRM and time management software

Travel: Required

Employment: Full time

Office Location: Rockaway, NJ

Compensation: Salary based on experience

Contact: Cheryl DeMeo, HR@allamericangames.com, O: (973) 366-8448 X107