It takes great confidence to be the leader of the defense. Everyone can see that you are the leader, and that you dictate the tempo and aggression of your defense.

Confidence is evident when a player is prepared. Your preparedness will show itself on the field, in your communication and in your ability to react to each play.

Prepare to make plays in crucial situations – it is the time when your team needs you to step up.

Relentlessly pursue perfection.

Place the team first -- it is more important then you.
The journey of a thousand miles starts with a single step. Football success is a long road, walked one day at a time.

Bounce up every time you are knocked down. Get up and get some more. It’s not where you are, it’s where you are going.

Be overprepared for the opportunity you wish to receive -- whatever it may be (starting, playing, etc.) it may come just once in your career. Be ready.

Leave your ego at the door.
“Wins and losses come a dime a dozen. But effort? Nobody can judge your effort. That’s between you and you only.” – Ray Lewis

“When it comes down to that moment, when it’s me against you, you know in your head whether you worked hard enough. You can try to lie to yourself. You can try to tell yourself that you put in the time. But you know – and so do I.” – J.J. Watt

“The great part about football is, for 48 minutes, nothing else matters. Girlfriend problems; family problems; everything you go through during the day – is gone.”
