NAME	SCHOOL	STATE	CLASS	POS	HT	WT	NOTES
D.J. Johnson	North Central HS	IN	2018	CB	6'1	165	Earned an invitation to the US Army National Combine. He was the top DB among a strong group of DB prospects at the camp. He has long arms and is very athletic. He excelled in press coverage. He is a physical player and has excellent make-up speed.
Aaron Baudaux	Pendleton Heights HS	IN	2017	OT	6'5	270	Earned the HS Leadership Award. The top overall OL prospect at the camp. He was extremely consistent with his footwork, hand placement and overall technique. Big kid who showed above average flexibility.
Jalen Peterson	Avon HS	IN	2019	CB	5'10	160	Impressive young DB prospect who was definitely one of the top playmakers of the camp. He was a very fluid young athlete with great loose hips and tremendous feet. He showed great quickness and ball skills in coverage drills and 7v7. He has a lot of natural feel for the position.
Sir'Zion Dance	Ben Davis HS	IN	2018	OLB	6'0	207	Earned invitation of the US Army National Combine. He was the top LB at the camp. He has top-notch quickness and an ability to react and get to the ball in a hurry. He was very instinctive and hard-nosed player who showed intensity throughout camp. He was athletic enough to cover in space with his compact build and is extremely well put together.
Elijah Ball	Ben Davis HS	IN	2018	S	6'1	190	High-caliber athlete who improved greatly as the camp went on. He was easily one of the best athletes on the field during routes and 7v7 portions of the camp. He made some big plays in the last couple of sessions.
Dane Middlebrook	Brownsburg HS	IN	2020	DT	6'1	303	Strong and athletic two-gap DT prospect who has a lot of potential. He flashed the ability to be dominant at camp. He has a chance to be a force with continued dedication in the weight room.
Walter Haire	North Central HS	IN	2017	LB	6'3	240	Earned the Gatorade "G" Award for the High School Division at the camp. He is very muscular and lean. He fared pretty well catching passes and also in blocking drills because he's an outstanding athlete. Hard working and coachable kid with a yes sir-no-sir attitude.
Benjamin Scott	Valparaiso HS	IN	2020	OT	6'4	280	Wide-bodied and powerful O-lineman prospect. He was one of the top O-linemen at the camp despite being only an 8th grader working with the high school players. Has good agility and can move his feet very well for a big, young kid. As he continues to get stronger and improve his body conditioning, has a chance to be a very high-caliber prospect.
John Downing	South Oldham HS	KY	2020	WR	5'10	155	Earned the Youth Gatorade "G" Award. He is a natural athlete who makes the game look easier than it is. He made a number of great catches in 7v7 drills. Quiet and confident player with good hands and a smooth run.
Cameron Elmore	Indian Creek HS	IN	2020	DT	6'3	265	A very strong and well-developed freshman to-be, who has size and strength well beyond his years. He flashed real potential throughout the camp. As a 2020 grad working with a good group of HS players, his performance was impressive. He showed a good attitude and willingness to take coaching. Has a chance to be a big-time player in the future.
Richie Hagarty	Cathedral HS	IN	2019	LB	6'1	195	Very projectable LB prospect who was very consistent and impressive throughout the camp. He plays with a lot of savvy and with a great understanding of the position. He has a big frame that could support his getting bigger and stronger without a big loss of quickness.
Larry Tracy	Decatur Central HS	IN	2019	S	5'11	170	This kid is an up and coming player who was among the top four DB among a strong position group at the camp. He does a really good job reading the QB and making players over the top. he is a great leaper, has good ball skills and is a well-built and flexible athlete.
Payton Ledbetter	Freeburg HS	IL	2018	DE	6'3	225	Among a good group of D-linemen at the camp, he showed the best first step. He has a good frame to continue to get bigger and stronger. Right now he is still fairly lean but has a broad frame and is a good athlete. He does a good job keeping his pad level down and using his hands.
Carter Herrin	South Vigo HS	IN	2018	TE	6'5	220	Young player with a tremendous frame. Showed good pass-catching ability and adequate quickness for a TE in 7v7 drills. Might lack the explosiveness and tremendous flexibility to be a big-time skill player, but could have a bright future as an in-line blocker or with a possible move to OT.
Brandon Schoeneman	Adams Central HS	IN	2017	DT	6'2	285	Big, strong interior D-lineman who built upon the excellent FBU Camp he had last summer. He plays with excellent leverage and power, hand placement and overall technique are a strength. He is very coachable and a hard worker who does his job without a lot of fanfare A consistent, dependable, lunch pail type of defensive lineman who also might have a good shot moving over to offensive as an OG.
Joey Person	Ben Davis HS	IN	2018	RB	5'9	165	Compact RB prospect who emerged as the top RB at the camp. His best attribute is his quickness and balance. He showed flashes of explosiveness and displayed above average hands. He has good feet and open-field ability.
Elijah Bailey	North Central HS	IN	2017	OG	6'3	240	He is a developing player with the ability to add some weight without losing his quickness. On the raw side, he has a chance to develop into a scholarship player with continued improvement of technique.
Braden Posey	Fort Thomas Highlands HS	KY	2018	WR	5'9	150	A feisty young WR who did not back down from anything during the camp. He made play after play against bigger DBs. He fought and competed for every ball, and showed good quickness and excellent speed. He had great hands and concentration. He is a natural football player and athlete who plays with heart.
Carter Robinson	Appleton North HS	WI	2019	QB	5'11	165	He was considered by most to have had the best camp among all the QBs. He showed a very polished skill set in his drops and throwing mechanics. He was very precise and smooth in his throws and did a good job reading coverages and did not force many throws. He is a good enough athlete to make plays out of the pocket when needed. He throws a really nice ball that is catchable and on target. He is a very smart player who has been well-coached and understands the position.
