NAME	SCHOOL	STATE	CLASS	POS	HT	WT	NOTES
Grant Roland	Prince Avenue Christian	GA	2018	QB	6'1	175	Roland won the camp Leadership Award in the high school group. He gets good velocity on the ball and showed great accuracy skills at the camp. Roland can move well in the pocket and make quick decisions. He is a solid prospect for the 2018 class.
Sam Howell	Sun Valley	NC	2019	QB	6'1	210	Howell was invited to the 2017 Army All-American Combine. He is a big time quarterback who's only a freshman. Howell has a thick build and can make all of the throws. He had a quick release and appears to be a solid athlete as well. Howell started on varsity as a freshman at his high school.
Cordell Littlejohn	Lincolnton	NC	2018	QB	6'4	185	Littlejohn is a very impressive kid when you see him in person. He has raw talent with great physical tools and size that make his upside high at the next level. He is athletic and moves really well for a kid his size.
Antonio Wallace	South Meck	NC	2017	QB	6'2	175	Wallace was the 3rd best QB at the camp. He has a great frame to add weight and athletically was one of the best at the camp. He had good mechanics and was a strong vocal leader at the camp.
Patrick Bentley	Patriot	VA	2017	QB	6'1.5	225	Bentley has a strong arm and showed good velocity on his throws. He has a thick build but he's deceptively athletic for a kid his size.
Zykameron Robinson	Spartanburg	SC	2019	RB	6'0	193	It's hard to believe that Robinson is a 2019 kid. He looked great on the hoof. He was physical with good hands and runs hard. Robinson has the upside to be a big time kid in the next couple of years.
Bryson Smith	Daniel	SC	2018	WR	6'3	175	Smith is a kid that is a pure possession wide receiver. He has above average height but also has the frame to put on weight. He ran good routes at the camp and has a great attitude.
Roger Carter Jr.	Blythewood	SC	2017	TE	6'2	245	Carter Jr. showed solid hands at the camp and moved well for his size. He's a prospect that will benefit in a college strength program and has good upside at the next level at Tight End.
Joshua Downs	Greater Atlanta Christian	GA	2020	WR	5'9	150	Downs received the Gatorade G Award for the youth group. He is advanced and doing things that some of the HS prospects couldn't grasp. He is a great athlete with superb speed. Downs needs to get bigger but he is a young pup with a lot of upside.
Jake Lawler	South Meck	NC	2017	DE	6'3	225	Lawler won the Gatorade G Award for the high school group, grabbing another MVP award to back up his MVP performance at last year's camp. He loves getting every rep that he can. He uses his hands so well and uses his speed to get off fast off of the ball. The UNC commit is a stud.
Angel Rivera	South Meck	NC	2018	DE	6'2	220	Rivera was invited to the 2017 Army All-American Combine. He is a kid with a great frame and showed a good get off. His best attribute however was how well he used his hands. He has a lot of upside and should be a force as a junior at South Meck.
Cameron Coleman	Elizabethton	TN	2018	DT	6'2	275	Coleman has good size and is a hard worker. He showed a good motor and at times use his hands well at the camp. He showed a willingness to compete as he tried to get as many reps in 1 on 1's as possible.

Johnny Ray Woodby	Elizabethton	TN	2017	DT	6'2	297	Woodby was physical and showed a good motor at the camp. He used his strength to overpower the offensive linemen at the camp and is a possible FCS caliber prospect at the next level.
Sage McBride	Tunstall	VA	2017	OL	6'5	278	McBride has a great frame and his footwork isn't bad for a kid his size. He was physical and was without a doubt the top offensive lineman at the camp.
Brian Lassiter II	Mallard Creek	NC	2017	DE	6'3	215	Lassiter recently transferred to Mallard Creek from Maryland. He performed well in 1 on 1's and showed good speed out of his stance.
Deangelo Blair-Young	South Meck	NC	2018	LB	5'11	202	Blair-Young lacks ideal height but makes up for it in skill. He's advanced for his age and showed that he was physical and has superb coverage skills.
Cassius Garner	Blythewood	SC	2017	LB	6'0	200	Garner showed good speed and coverage skills. He also played physical and was solid in the 1 on 1 and 7 on 7 portions of the camp.
Micah Byrd-Brown	Blythewood	SC	2017	LB	5'10	205	While Byrd-Brown is only 5-10", he has a college ready frame and plays tough. In 1 on 1's, he played physical and showed good coverage skills in 7 on 7. He also showed good lateral speed in the drills portion.
Jeremiah Gray	Ardrey Kell	NC	2019	DB	6'1	186	Gray's dad played in the NFL and Jeremiah is already taller than his father. He has ideal size for the next level and is very athletic. He showed good ball skills at the camp and has high upside.
Josh McNeely	South Meck	NC	2017	DB	5'8	150	McNeely was the best DB at the camp. His DB coach said his technique and performance was perfect. He's a lockdown cover corner with great ball skills.
Shane Grasty	Patriot	VA	2017	LB	5'11	200	Grasty was physical and routinely knocked players off of their routes. His father is a big guy that's athletic and Shane looks to be a clone of him. He always played smart and instinctive.
Kam Brinson	Aquinas	GA	2019	DB	5'10	150	Another young prospect that showed out at the camp was Brinson. Many thought he was the 2nd best DB at the camp. He showed solid coverage skills and played fast. Brinson was able to flip his hips and looked smooth in his backpedal.
