TOP PERFORMERS

NAME	SCHOOL	STATE	CLASS	POS	HT	WT	NOTES
Karson Avila	Smoky Hills	CO	2017	QB	6'1	175	Avila was the top quarterback at camp. He showed good high release and had the most active feet in camp. Avila was accurate with all throws; short, long and intermediate. He takes coaching well and puts it in his abilities. He received a Top Gun invitation and won the High School FBU Leadership Award.
Keyshawn Farmer	Cheyenne South	WY	2017	WR	6'0	175	Farmer was the top wide receiver in camp because he was good off the line with great escape techniques vs press coverage. Farmer is a good leaper with soft hands. He is a crisp route runner with good concentration and confidence. His quick reaction time, good hips and adjustment to ball in flight earned him a top gun invite. He also won the High School Gatorade "G" Award.
Bryce Codr	Cheyenne South	WY	2017	LB	6'1	190	Codr was the top linebacker in camp. He showed very good feet and flexibility running the bags. He strikes a blow and uses his hands well. Codr has active feet and hands with good reaction speed. He worked hard to stay square to the line of scrimmage. He made good separation after contact with blocker on the way to the football with a good push step.
Tevin Petrie	Norton Community	KS	2018	RB	5'10	175	Petrie was the overall top prospect and running back in camp. He shows excellent change of direction and has good hands out of the backfield. Petrie is confident in his abilities and boasts solid ball protection. He earned invites to Top Gun and the U.S. Army National Combine.
Ian Helwick	Brighton	CO	2018	DL	6'1	225	Helwick was the top defensive lineman in camp. During the running the bag drill, he showed his excellent feet and driving his thighs. During the 1 on 1's, he showed a violent punch with hands and got inside the offensive linemen and controlled him. Helwick has good shed and acceleration to the ball carrier. He finishes the drill all the way through and also received invitations to Top Gun and the U.S. Army National Combine.
Austin Clemetson	Campbell County	WY	2018	RB	5'9	175	Clemetson was the second best RB in camp. He is very light on his feet and ball security is important to him. In the hamburger drill, he excelled as he made good cuts as he followed his blocker. He is quicker than he is fast. Honor student.
Tayven Bray	Thunder Ridge	CO	2018	DL	6'3	185	Bray was the second best DL in camp as he went through camp with his wrist in a cast. He is very aggressive and worked hard to get his hands inside of the offensive lineman and replaced his hands well when needed. Bray has good stance and get off.
Tyson Martin	Heriman	UT	2018	OL	6'4	280	Martin had a good flat back stance and get off. His is a consistent hard worker and made effort to finish blocks. He is very coachable.
Devon Fresquez	Denver North	CO	2018	TE	6'2	210	Fresquez does a good job of using his size against defensive backs to get open and catching the ball. He is a good route runner with soft hands. He can increase his speed.
Tristan Smith	Mountain Vista	CO	2018	WR	5'11	166	Smith is a good young athlete with good ball skills and sure hands. He is a very smart player.
Reese Bravo	Pueblo West	CO	2018	RB	5'8	171	Bravo runs with power and breaks to daylight. He has a strong cut back move and runs good routes out of the backfield. Bravo showed good hands throughout camp
Eddie Kyle	Colorado Springs (HS: TBA)	CO	2020	WR	5'9	153	Kyle was a player I had been hearing about; a young receiver who was impressing coaches and I watched him in practice and he was all they said he was. He has a big upside and caught every ball thrown his way. Kyle has good separation speed and jumping ability. He is a play maker and received a Top Gun invitation. He won the Youth Gatorade "G" Award.
Jace Kluczewich	Huson (HS: TBA)	MT	2021	DB	5'9	150	Kluczewich was the best defensive back in camp as an 8th grade. His is confident for a young, inexperienced defensive back. He has great break on the ball as he tipped several balls. Kluczewich believes when the ball is thrown in his area, it belongs to him as he intercepted several balls and a had a pick 6. He has great closing speed and leaping ability. He received a Top Gun invitation and won the FBU Youth Leadership Award.
